Grab a cup of coffee, I will bring the donuts, and we will take a drive around Weatherford. We will be back in time for lunch. There are a lot of things going on in Weatherford, and we miss a lot when we are doing the driving.

Have you seen the cute, colorful tiny houses out by Wal Mart? We hear a lot about the Industrial Park, but have you driven around to see it? What about Wanderlust Crossing RV Park, or the new Shooting Star Park at the Stafford Air and Space Museum? The bus will leave the center at 9:30 and we will drive around Weatherford to see all the progress and wonderful things our city has to offer. Weatherford is growing at a good pace and there are a lot of new things to see. Space on the bus is limited, so please sign up in the office or by calling 580-772-1191 on or after Wednesday, July 1st.
